Refund PolicyTuition Refund

Rejection by Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC)

Students who are unable to obtain the necessary permits to enter Canada will receive a 100% refund to tuition fees, less the $175 registration fee. The school must receive written notification of the cancellation by completing a cancellation/refund request form available from the school and send a copy of the letter of rejection from Citizenship and Immigration Canada before the refund will be processed.

Cancellation Policy

The registration fee is non-refundable. In the event that a student must cancel their program, the school must receive written notification of the cancellation by completing a cancellation/refund form available from the school. Refunds are processed according to the terms below:

% Program Completed	% Tuition Refunded
Cancellations 30 days or more before the start date	70% (minus registration fee)
Cancellations less than 30 days before the start date	60% (minus registration fee)
0 - 15% of the length of study 	50% (minus registration fee)
16% - 24% of the length of study 	30% (minus registration fee)
Over 25% of the length of study 	0%

* Start date refers to the first day at ESC not individual program start dates.

 Length of study refers to the entire duration of your registration, not the length of individual programs

- Please note that the percentages are based on complete weeks. Students that request a refund mid-week will have the calculation based on the following week.

Accommodation Refund

The Homestay Placement fee is non-refundable. Students must notify the school at least two weeks in advance in order to obtain a refund for unused homestay fees.

1. Cancellation Prior to Arrival

- a) If the student cancels within 2 weeks prior to arrival, the homestay registration fee and two weeks homestay will be charged.
- b) In the event that the student does not arrive to homestay, the 4-week homestay fee will be applied.

2. Cancellation After Arrival

Students are expected to provide 30 days notice of withdrawal from the homestay program. Students who withdrawal after arrival will not receive a refund of the Homestay Registration Fee, or the remainder of the homestay session (4 weeks). Students are welcome to stay with the host throughout the notice period.

3. Cancellation Due to Visa Denial

If a student cancels because of a visa denial, the registration fee will be refunded, along with the homestay meal plan after the visa refusal letter is submitted to the ESC Administration Team.

Conditions of Enrollment

ESC reserves the right to refuse any undesirable registration. ESC reserves the right to change start dates, programs, and course content at any time and without prior notice. Fees, dates and conditions listed in this brochure are subject to change without prior notice. Courses are available based on enrollment.

ESC and its directors and shareholders accept no responsibility whatsoever for any loss or damage to the personal belongings or property of student or program participant or for any injury to or death of a student or program participant occurring on or off school property.

Students must comply with the rules of the school as per the Student Guidelines at <http://esc-toronto.com/guidelines>. Failure to comply with the rules of the school may result in dismissal.

Neither ESC nor its representatives is liable in cases where ESC is unable to fulfill any services to which they are contractually bound because of weather, labour disputes, or other reasons which are beyond their control.

Student Rights and ResponsibilitiesStudent Rights

ESC pledges to uphold student rights as outlined in the statements below. Furthermore, ESC pledges to adhere to the following policies and procedures regarding:

- The Registration Form • Fee Collection & Refund Policy • Academic Good Standing Policies • Academic Honesty Policy (UCTP-Prep & UCTP Program only) • Credential Assessment

Students at ESC have the right to:

- Protection under the laws governing the province of Ontario
- Study in an environment where health and safety regulations are adhered to
- Respect for one's person and property, including intellectual property*
- Communicate and exchange ideas freely with others
- Privacy of personal information
- Support from ESC staff in pursuit of academic progress
- Support and information regarding life in Canada
- A study environment free of discrimination based on ethnicity, religion, sexuality or gender
- Lodge formal complaints as outlined in the Student Complaint Procedure
- Request a transcript of their studies for up to 25 years after completion of study

* English School of Canada defines intellectual property as any product of human intelligence and creation including but not limited to written works, artistic images including drawings and paintings, photographs, and musical works. English School of Canada recognizes each student's exclusive rights to these assets and agrees that no use of such assets shall take place without prior consent.

 English School of Canada adheres to Canada's Personal Information and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA), details of which are clearly outlined in the student orientation binder and reproduced in the Collection of Personal Information Consent Form, which is signed on Orientation Day.

Student Code of Conduct

Students are responsible and accountable for their behaviour on school property and when participating in school-organized activities.*

Students at ESC Undertake to do the following:

- Abide by the laws governing the province of Ontario
- Follow school rules as outlined in the Academic Good Standing Policies section of this document
- Follow school safety procedures
- Respect the equal rights of others regardless of ethnicity, religion, sexuality or gender
- Treat school property and the property of others with respect
- Refrain from consuming alcohol and/or cannabis in all forms on ESC premises
- Refrain from attending school while intoxicated on alcohol, cannabis or any other illegal substance
- Refrain from unauthorized sales of goods and services on school property
- Behave in a way that does not harm, or threaten to harm, others either physically or mentally

Violations of Student Code of Conduct

- 1) The violation will be brought to the attention of the Director by completion of a Student Referral Form by a staff member.
- 2) The student will initially be informed of a violation by a Counsellor. They will arrange a time and date to meet to discuss the matter. The student will be provided with at least one day's notice of the meeting. If no Counsellor that speaks the student's language is available, the student will be provided with the option of arranging for an interlocutor to attend.
- 3) The student and any student-appointed interlocutor will meet with the Counsellor and/or the Director to discuss the violation. A final meeting will be arranged.
- 4) The attendees from the previous meeting will reconvene at the pre-arranged time and date to outline the findings and any resulting sanctions. Sanctions may include but are not limited to:
 - i) continued monitoring of behaviour to ensure adherence to the Student Code of Conduct
 - ii) forfeiture of the school certificate
 - iii) suspension from school (length is at the discretion of the Director)
 - iv) expulsion from the school with no refund
- 5) On completion of the process, documentation including the Student Referral Form, meeting minutes on the findings and sanctions will be kept in the Student File.
